Collect for the third Sunday before Lent

Almighty God,
who alone can bring order
to the unruly wills and passions of sinful humanity:
give your people grace
so to love what you command and to desire what you promise, that, among the many changes of this world,
our hearts may surely there be fixed where true joys are to be found;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Sunday 23rd February

9am St Michaels Holy Communion
10.30am St Nicholas Morning Prayer
10.30am All Saints Holy Communion

Please take this sheet home as a reminder of what's on and as a prompt for prayer.

Psalm & Readings for the third Sunday before Lent

Psalm: 1
Readings: Jeremiah 17: verses 15-10
1 Corinthians 15: verses 12-20
Luke 6: verses 17-26

Weekly Scripture

Here it is in a nutshell: Just as one person did it wrong and got us in all this trouble with sin and death, another person did it right and got us out of it. But more than just getting us out of trouble, he got us into life! One man said no to God and put many people in the wrong; one man said yes to God and put many in the right.

All that passing laws against sin did was produce more lawbreakers. But sin didn't, and doesn't, have a chance in competition with the aggressive forgiveness we call grace. When it's sin versus grace, grace wins hands down. All sin can do is threaten us with death, and that's the end of it. Grace, because God is putting everything together again through the Messiah, invites us into life—a life that goes on and on and on, world without end.

Romans 5: verses 18-21 (The Message Bible)

Prayers for the third Sunday before Lent

Your Son, who gave everything, came to save the world, help us to do his work in our time.

Help us to speak of our faith a school, work and in the community.

Help us to live as a great example of Christ-like love and hope.

Help us to serve as a disciple who washes the feet of others.

Help us to obey the word and teaching of Jesus.

Help us to keep on following the path before us.

Help us to share in his work to save the world. Amen

Prayer taken from Worship Words, Nick Harding
